

The forthcoming 16th annual ČAG conference will be held in the beautiful area of Moravskoslezské Beskydy Mountains, culmination part of Outer Western Carpathians in the Czech Republic.

We welcome contributions from geomorphologists and related disciplines dealing with landscape development and its forming processes. We hope the conference will be pleasant and inspiring for you, also thanks to conference-evening and post-conference field trip to the marvellous landscape in the heart of Czech Carpathians.
